A different place. A unique experience.

Sacristía de Santa Ana Hotel combines architecture, design, technology and confort to satisfy the most demanding customers. Placed at Seville centre town, at the historical Alameda de Hércules, has a privileged location, at one of the modern places of city, emerging gastronomic area, and close to the commercial and touristic places.

The hotel is the result of a dream, so, each detail has been carefully thought to offer a unique sensorial experience, comfortable. A place to relax in the centre of the city.

Our furniture have been designed and made in a traditional way and in every corner of the hotel you can enjoy unique pieces hand painted and made in detail.

The design and our attention to each detail makes the difference and gives character to the hotel.

Rooms.

The Hotel has 23 rooms with the same style, but with several details that distinguish one to each other.. Headboards hand painted, pictures on the walls, the bed covers or the furniture from antique shops.

Our rooms are not only a number, they have their own personality an their name; all of them related to the labors of Hercules.
